

National Park Service

Northwest Arctic Heritage Center, 171 3rd Ave., 442-3890

Arctic Circle Film Series

Teaming up with Chukchi Library to bring the best of Arctic and conservation films to Kotzebue

October 2nd @ 7:00 pm

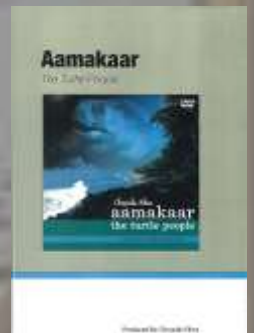

Wild Russia

Another film by Uwe Anders; come see how Wild Russia is interpreted for a European audience! 45 min.

October 9th @ 7:00 pm

Aamakaar: The Turtle People

People in a small village in northern India engage in the conservation of Olive Ridley turtles while their very existence is threatened by sand mining activities. Come see if your reaction would be like theirs! 76 min.

October 16th @ 7:00pm

Heavy Metal

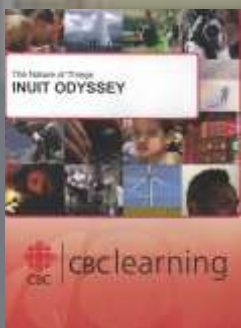

Showing the complexity of a Superfund site, this film gives us a peek into the world of a lead, zinc, and silver mining district in northern Idaho. It's not pretty! 57 min.

October 23rd @ 7:00pm

Birthplace of the Winds: Sea Kayaking Alaska

A Slow Boat to Somewhere: Exploring French Polynesia

Enjoy the cultural contrast of a kayak trip into the Aleutians followed by a trip on a cargo boat through French Polynesia. 26/26 min.

October 30th @ 7:00pm

Inuit Odyssey

Tag along with Canadian anthropologist Niobe Thompson in his search across the north for the origin of the modern Inuit. Visually stunning!! 45 min.

on Twitter @ CKrusensternNPS, @ KobukValleyNPS, or @ NoatakNPS